FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS!

Once upon a time, everything was so fine.

We cherished each moment, so full of grace,

Beneath her presence, a peaceful place.

A soul so lovely, a heart so true —

She made the world feel fresh and new.

Her heart was tender, her words full of truth.

Nothing could surpass the beauty of her nature.

In her, we found grace, dignity, and compassion

—An epitome of human values.

Then, suddenly, clouds of gloom appeared.
We lost that guiding presence...
We lost her — and with her, a part of ourselves.
A moment we can never forget —
The moment when everything came to a halt.

We cried, we grieved, shaken by such a loss.
But then, from deep within, rose a quiet strength.
And lo! What was it?
It was the very values she once instilled in us.

And a voice within whispered:
*"Though I'm not there in form,
I'll always be your guiding light —
Forever in your hearts."*

Rukaiya Ma'am, your soul ascends —
In every good deed that never ends.

Commendable and Close: Our Runners-up

From the Principal's Desk

“The function of education is to teach one to think intensively and to think critically. Intelligence plus character — that is the goal of true education.”

- Martin Luther King, Jr.

The motto of Royal Girls' High School is Knowledge, Education, Excellence, and Empowerment through quality education.

Academics is the core focus of our school. All possible efforts have been taken, and we will continue to take more, to ensure academic excellence in our school. We believe that excellence in academics is the hallmark of our school as a premier institution.

Our curriculum is designed in such a way that it ensures a smooth transition of a child from student life to becoming a worthy member of the nation. Even today, compared to the rest of the world, our school remains one of the  best and safest educational institutions for students. Therefore, each one of us — parents, teachers, and students — should join hands to build a better society with a bright future.

The school magazine in your hands is a perfect tool that will surely help you get glimpses of the year-long activities and achievements of our students. I am sure the quality and variety of content will not only be informative but also impressive and enjoyable. In this pursuit of excellence, I appreciate our parent fraternity for supporting the school in every aspect. I also laud the relentless efforts of our teaching and non-teaching staff for giving their best in bringing out the best in each child.

The world of the 21st century is changing at an accelerated pace. It is a challenge for educators to cope with the changing world order and prepare their students for the future. It has rightly been said by Margaret Mead, ‘Children need to be taught how to think, not what to think.’

RGHS has always tried to inculcate creativity, critical thinking, innovation, and divergent thinking, along with proper values of life, among its students. The school conducts an array of activities throughout the year, bringing out all these skills among children.

This edition of the school magazine ‘Harmony’ gives space to imagination and unlocks the thoughts and values of our children and staff. It unfolds a wide spectrum of creative skills which includes not only writing and designing but also editing the magazine.

As the Principal of the school, I feel honoured and privileged to be a part of RGHS where every stakeholder is a learner and every day is an opportunity to learn and discover. We look at ourselves as a community of learners, where everyone learns — including our teachers, parents, and staff.

I believe in upholding high standards with an absolute commitment to strive to understand and improve the educational process using team strategies, while wholly centering on student achievement.

The creativity of students and teachers has resulted in 'Harmony' only because of the strenuous efforts of the editorial board, the active participation of students, the supportive management, the dedicated and caring staff, and the cooperative parents who worked in the background to bring out the best in children. Through 'Harmony', we have given a great opportunity to our students and teachers to express themselves by contributing articles, stories, and poems.

We would like to thank all the authors who sent in their creative works that made this edition phenomenal.

Pre-Primary Section Annual Report (2024-2025)

“Through education, we plant the seeds of curiosity that grow into the trees of knowledge.”

The academic year 2024–2025 was a vibrant journey of growth, exploration, and joyful learning for the Pre-Primary Section of Royal Girls’ High School. With the collective efforts of a dedicated team of educators, enthusiastic students, and supportive parents, the year blossomed into a nurturing and stimulating experience that laid strong foundations for lifelong learning.

“A child’s education is like a canvas, where every lesson adds a stroke of brilliance.”

The year began with a focus on building core foundational skills through a balanced approach that combined play-based exploration with structured learning. Concepts in literacy, numeracy, and general awareness were introduced through engaging activities like storytelling, songs, games, and hands-on projects—making learning fun, meaningful, and memorable.

Guided by the belief of Socrates that,

“Education is kindling of flame, not filling of a vessel,” the Pre-Primary Section adopted ‘Little Mee’, an integrated programme developed by Firefly – Chetana Publications. This curriculum encouraged curiosity, creativity, and confidence in every child, laying a solid educational foundation.

Cultural understanding and social awareness were fostered through the joyful celebration of special days such as:

- Independence Day & Republic Day
- Diwali, Christmas, Eid, and Holi Celebration
- Environment Day, National Science Day
- Colours Day, Grandparents’ Day
- Graduation Day

Each celebration was marked with fancy dress, theme-based art, song and dance performances, and hands-on activities that reflected the rich diversity and unity of our cultural fabric. To encourage self-expression and stage confidence, our little stars participated in:

- Rhymes Recitation
- Story Narration
- Fancy Dress
- Drawing & Colouring Competitions
- Annual Day and Sports Day

These events provided young learners with the perfect platform to express their talents, build confidence, and develop love for performance and participation.

Experiential learning remained a core philosophy, and our theme “Learning Beyond the Classroom” came to life through educational field trips including:

- A visit to the fire station
- A refreshing nature walk
- An exciting trip to the local mall
- A fun-filled bus road trip

These experiences enriched the curriculum and allowed children to relate real-world observations with their classroom learning.

We deeply value our partnership with parents. Events like:

- Family Day
- Grandparents’ Day
- Orientation Programmes
- Regular Parent-Teacher Meetings

created a warm and collaborative environment that supported every child’s growth and built a strong school-home connection.

Our educators are the heart of our classrooms. To ensure they stay inspired and informed, professional development workshops were regularly organized on:

- Early Childhood Education
- Classroom Management
- Creative and Innovative Teaching Strategies

This ensured that best practices were consistently integrated into our teaching methods.

As we conclude this academic year, our hearts are filled with pride, gratitude, and hope. We extend our heartfelt thanks to the Management, Principal, teachers, support staff, and especially to the parents for their unwavering trust and support.

But above all, a special note of appreciation goes to our young learners—whose bright smiles, endless curiosity, and bubbling energy are the true soul of the Pre-Primary Section.

Here's to another beautiful year of learning, discovery, laughter, and love—nurturing the promise of a brighter tomorrow.

— Ms. Alifiya Habib

Primary Annual Report (2024-2025)

“Learning gives creativity, creativity leads to thinking, thinking provides knowledge, and knowledge makes you great.”

— Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam

The academic year 2024–2025 has been a purposeful and enriching journey for the Primary Section of Royal’s H.A Girls’ High School. It was marked by commendable achievements in academics, co-curricular activities, sports, and holistic development — all aimed at nurturing the potential of every child and enhancing the quality of education.

“Strength doesn’t come from physical capacity; it comes from unity.”

At RGHS, we believe in shaping young minds to thrive in every walk of life. Recognizing that every child learns differently, we embrace the theory of Multiple Intelligence, offering a diverse platform for students to explore and excel beyond the classroom.

To nurture dramatization skills and stage confidence, an Inter-House Street Play Competition was organized, showcasing students’ ability to communicate powerful messages through performance.

A variety of Inter-Class Competitions such as:

- Mask Making
- Book Covering
- Poster Making
- Towel Folding
- Hindi Handwriting

were held to foster creativity, fine motor skills and healthy peer interaction.

Our students also brought pride to the school by participating in Inter-School Competitions, including the English Elocution and Olympiad Exams, where they earned medals and accolades.

“Winning isn’t everything, but wanting to win is.”

Recognizing the importance of physical education, we conducted several sports events, including the Inter-House Kho-Kho Tournament. These activities play a crucial role in developing gross motor skills, discipline, and team spirit in our students.

“Seeing is believing, but experiencing is imbibing.”

To promote experiential learning, educational trips were organized:

- Grade 1 & 2: Fun-filled day at Saina Resort
- Grade 3 & 4: Memorable visit to Mandvi Resort
- All Grades: Educational tour to MuSo (Museum of Solutions)

These excursions encouraged students to bond, share experiences, and learn beyond textbooks.

To instil values of patriotism and unity, Independence Day and Republic Day were celebrated with zeal through songs, skits, drills, and dance performances.

In alignment with global and cultural awareness, the school also celebrated:

- World Environment Day
- International Women’s Day
- Hindi Diwas
- Marathi Diwas
- International Yoga Day
- Annual Science Exhibition

Each event emphasized values of respect, environmental responsibility, gender equality, and intellectual curiosity.

The academic year culminated in a vibrant Annual Day Celebration, where the talents and teamwork of students and teachers came alive on stage.

The success of this year's journey reflects the dedication of students, support of parents, guidance of teachers, and encouragement from school management.

In words of Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam:

“To succeed in your mission, you must have single-minded devotion to your goal.”

— Ms. Afreen Shaikh

Secondary Annual Report (2024-2025)

“Growth starts with the seed of knowledge, and knowledge comes from learning.”

At RGHS, we believe the goal of education is the advancement of knowledge and the dissemination of truth. Our school emphasizes a broad, inclusive system of teaching and learning, providing all students with equal opportunities to develop their full potential. We foster lifelong learning, critical thinking, responsibility, compassion, and a desire to contribute to the well-being of society and the nation.

“Individual commitment and group efforts make a school, a society, and a civilization work.”

The students of the school are divided into four different houses – Emerald, Ruby, Sapphire, and Topaz. The hard work and dedication of students toward their houses were recognized as Sapphire House won the Best House Trophy for the academic year. The academic year commenced with an emphasis on civic responsibility and obligations, reflected in the Investiture Ceremony. After a fair election, the student council was elected and entrusted with the responsibility of maintaining discipline and decorum in the school.

“The interaction of knowledge and skill is key to creativity and innovation.”

Our students showcased their creativity and ingenuity through various curricular activities. Highlights include:

- The Interclass Flannel Board Competition, where students displayed their innovative thinking.
- The Interhouse Name Plate making Competition, showcasing artistic renditions of student names.
- The Interhouse Collage making and Interhouse Ad making competitions, where students expressed themselves through visual art. Additionally, the Interhouse Hindi Street Play and Interhouse Mono-Acting Competitions encouraged students to connect with their emotions and society through performance.

“Sports build our character, teach us to follow rules and maintain discipline in life, and allow us to embrace both successes and failures.”

Our school curriculum recognizes the importance of physical fitness and sports. Students participated in the Interhouse Chess Tournament and Interhouse Basketball Tournament. They also earned several medals, certificates, and trophies during the Annual Sports Meet.

“The future belongs to those who learn more skills and combine them creatively for personal growth.”

Our students displayed outstanding skills in various Interschool Competitions and National and State-level exams, including:

- All India Swachh Bharat Abhiyan Art Competition
- Ram Krishna Mission Competition
- KAHOOT Quiz Competition
- Kala Shri Handwriting Competition
- Navneet Masterstroke Competition
- Dr. Homi Bhabha Balvaidyanik exam
- Olympiad, and Marathi Dnyanpeeth exam

“Patriotism fosters national unity, pride, and a sense of shared identity, leading to a stronger and more prosperous nation.”

To inspire students to work together for common goals, we celebrated Independence Day and Republic Day with enthusiasm. Additionally, Marathi Diwas was celebrated to emphasize the importance of Marathi as a regional language.

“The best education comes from travelling. Nothing teaches you more than exploring different places and accumulating experiences.”

This year, the school organized several enriching trips:

- One-day trip to Mandvi Resort at Vajreshwari and Fountain City Waterpark at Mira-Bhayander.
- An Educational trip to MuSo (Museum of Solutions) at Lower Parel.
- A Long trip to Hyderabad, offering students a chance to explore new cultures and ideas.

Our students also showed immense respect for their teachers by celebrating Teacher's Day.

The most awaited event of the year, the Annual Day Celebration, was a grand success. The theme 'Spirit of Mumbai' was beautifully brought to life through various cultural and contemporary performances, including dances, songs, skits, and drama.

In loving memory of our beloved Managing Trustee, Madam Rukaiya Lakdawala, our Chairman, Prof. Asgar E. Lakdawala, instituted the "Rukaiya Lakdawala Memorial Award", and seven students were awarded cash prize based on their academics, participation in activities, attendance, and behaviour throughout the year.

"Creativity is the key that unlocks the door of ones mind and soul."

The Annual Exhibition: Sankalp 2024, with the theme 'A Journey from Man to Machine', was a testament to the dedication and efforts of our students and teachers. The exhibits, ranging from Science, Mathematics, Languages, Social Studies, and Art, reflected the students' hard work and creativity.

We remain committed to equip our students with knowledge, skills and values, ensuring they become well-rounded individuals who contribute positively to the society.

— Ms. Zarina Muloor

In The Words of Learners: The Students' Corner

Looking around, I've realized

Looking around, I've realized,
Knowing more feels like a sin,
Too pure, yet harsh on soul and skin.

Growing old,
Listening to stories untold,
Titles that never existed unfold.

The smiles you once saw on faces,
Now replaced by riles in hidden spaces.
Loving faces,
Hating souls,
In the beauty of hearts,
Lie ugly goals.

In the world's chaos, a path it finds,
Amid melting ice, unburdened minds.
Chasing youth, as time must,
Some find peace in a dying gust.

Bits and grails in fearful trails,
Some perish hiding, others prevail

— Saudah Ansari, Class X B

How Life Moves On

Dear Readers,

Today, I'm going to talk about the most important thing I've learned as a 10th grader. This lesson has crossed my mind several times since February 2024, and it is only now that I truly understand its meaning. Let me begin by sharing an incident with you all.

My paternal grandmother passed away on the 13th of February, just three days before my 15th birthday. I watched her suffer with my own eyes. I realized that even with such a heavy heart, we had to let her go.

That's what life is about—letting go and realizing that, with time, things begin and things come to an end, no matter how hard we try to hold on to the things we love. It all depends on how we approach things, keeping that in mind, at some point—whether in a few hours or a few decades—we must let go in order to move forward, regardless of the love we have for it.

It may be people, friends, an incident that left an impact on you, or an emotion you once cherished. Think of this as a moving train. It must leave one station to reach another, unaware that it may never cross paths with the first one again.

—Afsa Sheriff, Class XA

The Time to Be Happy Is Now

Time is a very important resource in the hands of mankind. When time is used effectively and efficiently, it leads to success and thus, brings happiness. Hence, it is wise to utilize the time at one's disposal to the fullest, rather than deferring or waiting for a better opportunity that may never come. Therefore, the time to be happy is in the present.

— Esha Makwana, Class
XA

Self-Doubt

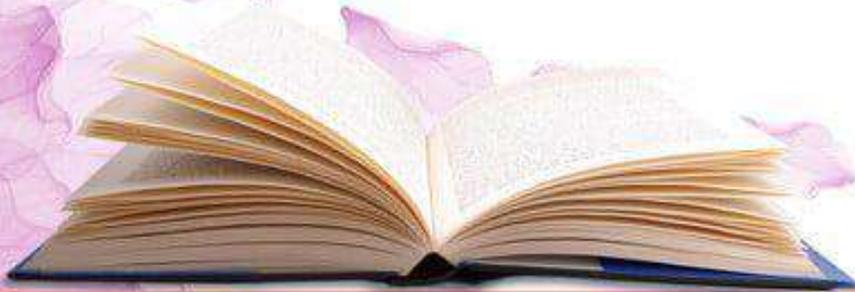

Self-doubt creates a barrier between you and your dreams. If you never erase it from within, you can never truly achieve your goals.

Having no confidence in your abilities will get you nowhere in life. Overthinking whether you can do something or not will only stop you from even trying. And if you don't try, how will you ever know if you're good at it? If there's something you're passionate about, pursue it.

When you're striving to achieve your goals, you'll face many obstacles. Sometimes, it will be people judging you, trying to embarrass you, or making you feel insecure. Other times, failure might try to demotivate you. But you have to be resilient. You have to push harder and never give up.

In conclusion, remember: Don't compare yourself to others, as everyone is unique. Believe in yourself, and as Theodore Roosevelt said, "Believe you can, and you're halfway there."

— Aimen Nomani, Class XB

Secret of the Butterfly

The Butterfly Effect

The Butterfly Effect is a fascinating idea from chaos theory: a butterfly flapping its wings might cause a chain of events leading to a hurricane far away. Our smallest deeds can leave lasting impressions on those around us. A kind word can inspire a wave of goodwill, while even small, thoughtless acts can hurt others in ways we may never realize.

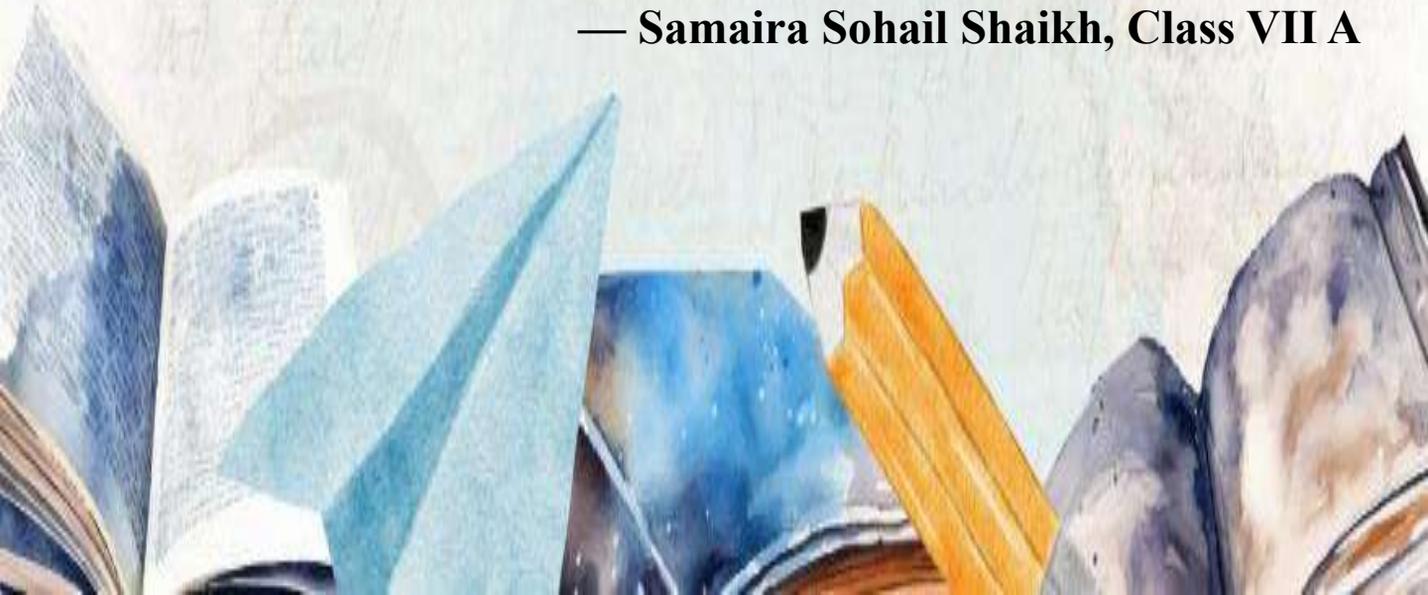

The Power of Presence

If small moments matter so much, how can we notice them better? By practising mindfulness—being fully present without judgement—we can tune in to the little things. This helps us see the beauty in everyday life, like the quiet hum of nature or the joy in simple moments.

Finding Meaning in the Small Things

Life's meaning isn't always in big achievements but in the small, unnoticed moments. Whether waiting at a crosswalk, listening to the rain or sharing silence with a loved one, these quiet moments remind us of life's deeper beauty. Pause and appreciate them—they hold life's most profound stories.

— Samaira Sohail Shaikh, Class VII A

Knowledge Unbound

School—an empire of knowledge so vast,
With towers of wisdom, standing steadfast.
The spell of learning they gently cast,
A beacon of light from present to past.

A place of growth, of dreams and play,
Where minds grow sharp, yet hearts stay kind,
Like a blooming rose on a summer's day,
A garden where young souls unwind.

Where friendships flourish, memories are made,
The kindest hearts shine bright and true,
Like the glow of diamonds, the glint of jade,
A bond that time cannot undo.

Here students gather, eager to learn,
To chase new dreams at every turn.
With curious minds and questions profound,
Through trial and error, the answers are found.

For the tree of wisdom it gently sows,
From its roots, boundless knowledge grows.

School—an empire of wisdom so vast,
With towers of knowledge, a future steadfast!

—Aamnah Shaikh, Class IX A

Yes, We All Grew Up

Yes, we all grew up.
From crying to be heard
to being quiet so no one could hear us.

Yes, we all grew up.
From not liking to go to school to loving to be there all the time.

Yes, we all grew up.
From hip-hop music
to the soothing lo-fi versions of songs.

Yes, we all grew up.
From loving bright, sunny days
to sitting quietly and cherishing the moon.

Yes, we all grew up.
From talking all day
to enjoying the peace of silence.

Yes, we all grew up.
From countless connections to cherishing the few gems by our side.

Yes, we all grew up.
From seeking enjoyment every moment to yearning for calm and peace.

Yes, we all grew up.
From being annoyed by mud
to loving every single drop of rain.

Yes, we all grew up.
Yes, we all grew up.

There Is Something on My Mind

Oh, subconscious mind,
Lost within my imagination,
Always searching for new creation—
There is something on my mind.

A thought to pass,
A fear to fail,
A silent worry I can't unveil—
There is something on my mind.

Something that dims the joy,
Where sorrow stands so high,
Always torn, unsure, confused—
There is something on my mind.

Introverted, yet seeking light,
Overthinking every fight,
Trapped within the past's embrace,
Trying hard to find my space.

There is something on my mind,
A tangled mess I can't unwind,
A storm of doubts I can't express—
There is something on my mind.

— Sadiya Shaikh, Class VII A

Our School, Our Shining Light

In halls so grand, with colours bright,
Royal Girls' shine with guiding light.
We pray, we study, and we play,
Learning, growing every day.

Five floors high, our dreams take flight.
In labs and books, our future is bright.
Art and music, voices strong,
In every heart, a joyful song.

Ruby, Emerald, Topaz, Sapphire—
In friendly games, we aim higher.
With harmony, with love, with grace,
We build a better world, our place.

With teachers' kind and lessons wise,
We soar beneath the endless skies.
For girls to rise, to lead, to be—
A future strong, bold, and free.

So here we stand, with heads held high,
Royal Girls'—our wings to fly!

— Faryal Shaikh, Class V A

Courageous Of All

I try hard not to break,
For I am not crystal,
But I have been pushed so hard,
That I shatter like fragile glass.

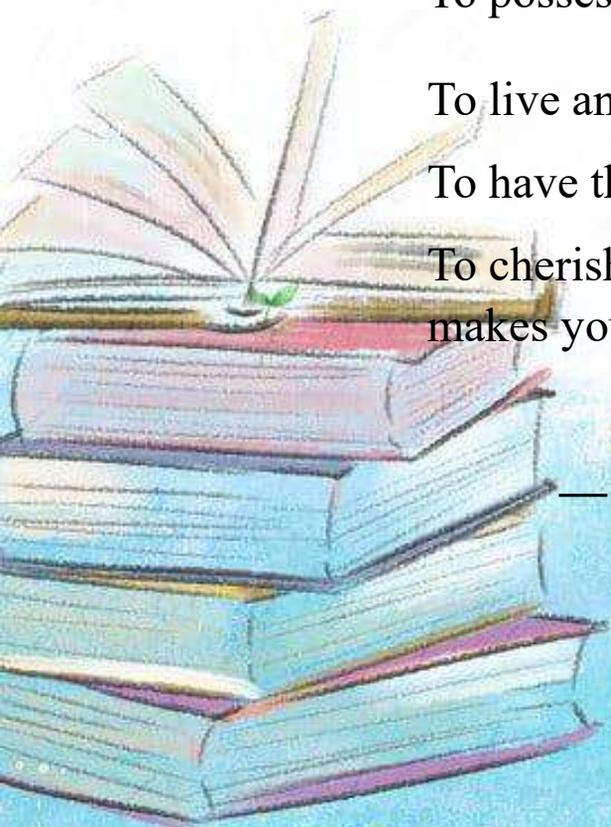

I pick myself up again,
Only to fall once more.
Yet, I strive to thrive,
To succeed in life.

To try hard and never give up—That's what makes one tough.

To rise again, to stand tall,
To possess the will that keeps you going.

To live and see what life has to offer,
To have the will to love and endure,
To cherish those closest to you—That is what makes you the courageous of all.

— Safina Sharafatali Shaikh, Class IX A

A True Friendship

A true friendship is special and rare,
Like a precious gem found not everywhere.
It's a perfect joy, a beauty with grace,
A true friend is always there in every place.
A true friend will always stand by you,
A true friend always believes in you.
But most of all, a true friend will never leave,
Through every storm, in them you can believe
They make you smile on the darkest day,
With simple words, they light the way.
A true friend stays from start to end—
That's the meaning of a true friend.

— Aanvi Jain, Class IX A

The Mystery of a Strange Book

On a beautiful summer evening, an old man went for a brisk walk. He wore a brown cowboy hat, glasses with a vintage frame, and carried a walking stick. His long beard swayed as he hummed a tune. As he reached the road, he found himself unable to cross due to the speeding cars and heavy traffic.

I had always been taught to be kind and helpful, thanks to my mom. So, without hesitation, I decided to help him. I held his heavy handbag and guided him safely across the road. Once we reached the other side, he thanked me warmly, and I was about to leave when he suddenly called out, "Excuse me!"

I turned back to see him pulling out a small box from his bag. He insisted that I take it as a token of gratitude. At first, I was hesitant, but eventually, I accepted the box and headed home. A strange fear crept over me—what if there was something dangerous inside? My hands trembled as I carefully opened it.

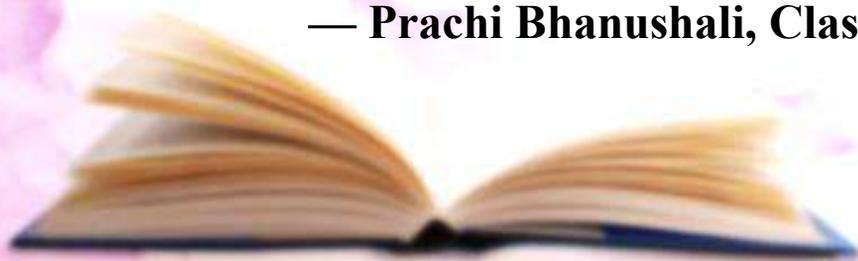

To my surprise, inside lay an old, tattered book with yellowed pages. I gasped when I read the title: "The Book of Wishes That Come True." Curiosity took over, and I read the entire book in one sitting. Could this be real? To test it, I made a simple wish—a brand-new pair of sneakers. The next morning, I woke up to find them beside my bed! I was overjoyed.

Excited, I kept making more wishes, and to my amazement, every single one came true. I felt like the luckiest kid on the planet! But soon, greed got the better of me. The night before my exams, instead of studying, I wished for full marks. When the results came, I was shocked—I had only scored mediocre marks. Worse, from that day onward, the book stopped working. No matter what I wished for, nothing happened.

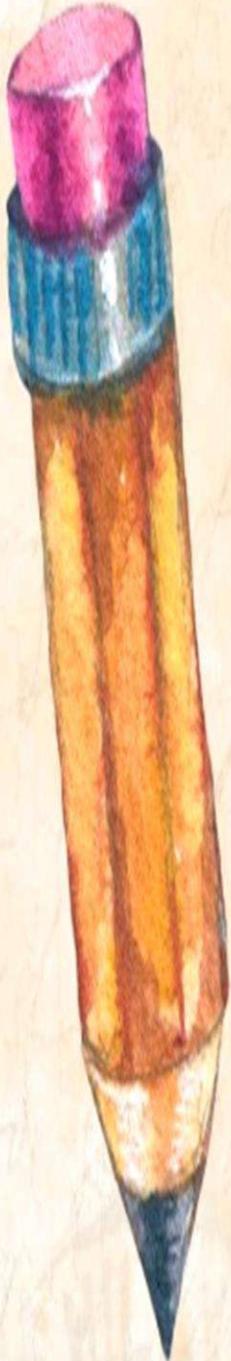

Confused and frustrated, I flipped through the pages, searching for an answer. When I reached the last page, I found a message written in bold letters: "If I ever stop working, it is because you have gone against your morals—the very reason you received me in the first place."

Reading those words shook me. I realized my mistake—I had been wishing for things I had never worked for. That day, I made a promise to myself: to always be kind, to never take shortcuts, and to work hard for everything I want in life. And so, the strange book taught me the most valuable lesson of all.

— Prachi Bhanushali, Class VII A

Unconditional

I like the sun
when it shines so bright,
but also when it hides,
behind the clouds at night.

I like the trees
when they stand so tall,
but also when their leaves slowly start to fall.

Then why don't I like myself,
when I feel a little low?
Why do I wait to be better,
before I let my love show?

Maybe I should love myself, on good days and bad—
not just when I feel happy,
but also when I am sad.

Just like that,
without a reason,
without a rule,
without a condition.

— Wajihah Abbas, Class VIII B

Dare to Dream

Close your eyes and let your imagination fly away.
See the picture of where you wish to be someday.

Let the colours of your heart take command, to paint the picture of your dream and place it in your hand.

Hold on tightly and nurture it,
but allow it room to grow.
When you reach your dream,
open your hand and let it go.

Close your eyes and search for another—care for it like before.
Never stop dreaming, achieving,
and letting go—
for that's what dreams are for.

—Anam Asif Thekedar, Class IV A

Things I Would Like to Change

I would like to change our surroundings because they are not always clean. I want to help by picking up chocolate wrappers, plastic bags, and other litter. We should never throw anything on the road.

For example, if someone throws a banana peel, someone else could slip, lose balance, and get hurt. I will also encourage my friends to help keep our surroundings clean and tidy. Will you do the same?

I avoid throwing things on the road or out of windows. We all should keep our environment neat and clean so that everyone can live a happy and healthy life.

— Sidra Khatri, Class IV A

Calendar Poem

January starts with a fresh new year,
Let go of worries, embrace the cheer.

February arrives with warmth in the air,
A month of care, with hearts to share.

March is here, she helps us stay on track,
With studies in mind, there's no turning back.

In April, we study with all our might,
Preparing for exams, day and night.

May brings joy, our favourite month to play,
Summer's here, it's time to enjoy the day!

June marks the start of a brand-new school year,
July keeps us busy, but we hold it dear.

August celebrates India's birthday,
A time for pride and joy, in every way.

September is for teachers, wise and kind,
We honour them, with respect in mind.

October brings Diwali, lights shining bright,
A festival of joy, lighting up the night.

November brings Children's Day and Nehru's birth,
A celebration of youth, and the value of their worth.

December arrives with Christmas cheer,
A time to reflect on the year that's here.

And so, the year ends, with hopes for new beginnings,
A fresh start, as the cycle keeps spinning.

“सपनों की उड़ान”

सपनों के इस आसमान में,
तोड़ पिंजरे को, ऊँची उड़ान भर,
अपने लक्ष्य तक पहुँचने के लिए,
कर अपने श्रम की सीमा पार।

सपनों के इस आसमान में,
खो जा इस उड़ान में,
मंजिल तेरी राह में बैठी है,
अधीर है वो, जिंदगी का संगीत गाने में।

सपनों के इस आसमान में,
आज़ाद रहकर उड़ना सीख,
अगर कभी गलती हो, तो पीछे मत मुड़,
नए सवेरे की रोशनी में, नयी कहानी लिख।

सपनों के इस आसमान में,
बनानी है तुझे अपनी पहचान,
छू लेना है इस अनंत आसमान को,
पूरा कर अपना सपना, बढ़ा अपनी शान।

“स्त्री”

यह माँ है, ये बेटी है,
यह पत्नी है, यह बहू है,
सबसे महान यह स्त्री है।

माँ यह घर की रौनक है,
ईश्वर का स्वरूप भी,
इनके बलिदानों की बात करें,
तो पूरे जीवन की कमी है।

बेटी इसके पैदा होते ही,
घर का आँगन खिलता है,
अपने पिता का सपना लिए,
जीवन के सफर में आगे बढ़ती है।

पत्नी, इसके घर आते ही,
सस्कारों को साथ लाती है,
अपने माता-पिता का आँगन छोड़ आई,
हमारे घर को महकाती है।

चाहे सब इसके खिलाफ हो,
यह अपने साथ रहती है,
सारे समाज को गलत साबित कर,
एक स्त्री अपना जीवन बिताती है।

सत्संगती

सत्संगती म्हणजे चांगल्या लोकांमध्ये मिसळून राहणे. श्रेष्ठ लोकांच्या सहवासामध्ये असणाऱ्या व्यक्तींमध्ये चांगले गुण येतात. व ते विकसित होतात. मनुष्याला चांगली संगत मिळाली तर त्याचा निरंतर विकास होत राहतो.

आपल्यापेक्षा अधिक योग्य, गुणी, विद्वानांच्या सहवासाला सत्संगती म्हणतात. सज्जनांच्या संपर्कात आल्यामुळे दृष्ट लोकांमध्येही चांगले गुण दिसतात. सत्संगतीमुळे मानवाची जीवनशैलीच बदलून जाते. सत्संगतीचा प्रत्येक माणसावर चांगलाच परिणाम होतो. मनुष्य जशा संगतीमध्ये राहतो तसेच त्याचे आचरण बनत जाते. सत्संगती माणसाला विकासोमुख करत असते; तर कुसंगती माणसाला विनाशाकडे घेऊन जाते. विद्यार्थी जीवनामध्ये सत्संगतीचे विशेष महत्त्व आहे. कुसंगतीत पडल्यास विद्यार्थ्यांचे आयुष्य वाया जाते.

सत्संगतीत राहिल्यास आपण कमळाच्या पानावर पडलेल्या पाण्याच्या थेंबाप्रमाणे मोती बनवून सदैव चमकत राहतो. सत्संगती माणसाला जीवनातील अडचणींना सामना करण्याची शक्ती देते. थोडक्यात आपण नेहमी चांगल्या मित्रांच्या, व्यक्तींच्या सहवासात असावे व वाईट व्यक्तींना टाळावे तरच जीवनामध्ये आपण यशस्वी होतो.

उपकार आईचे

वाट पाहत होते मी

ते क्षण कधी येईल ?

मऊ मऊ तुझे हात

मी हातात केव्हा घेईन?

ते क्षण जेव्हा आले

तेव्हा माझ्या डोळ्यात होते अश्रू

पण जेव्हा घेतले तुला कुशीत

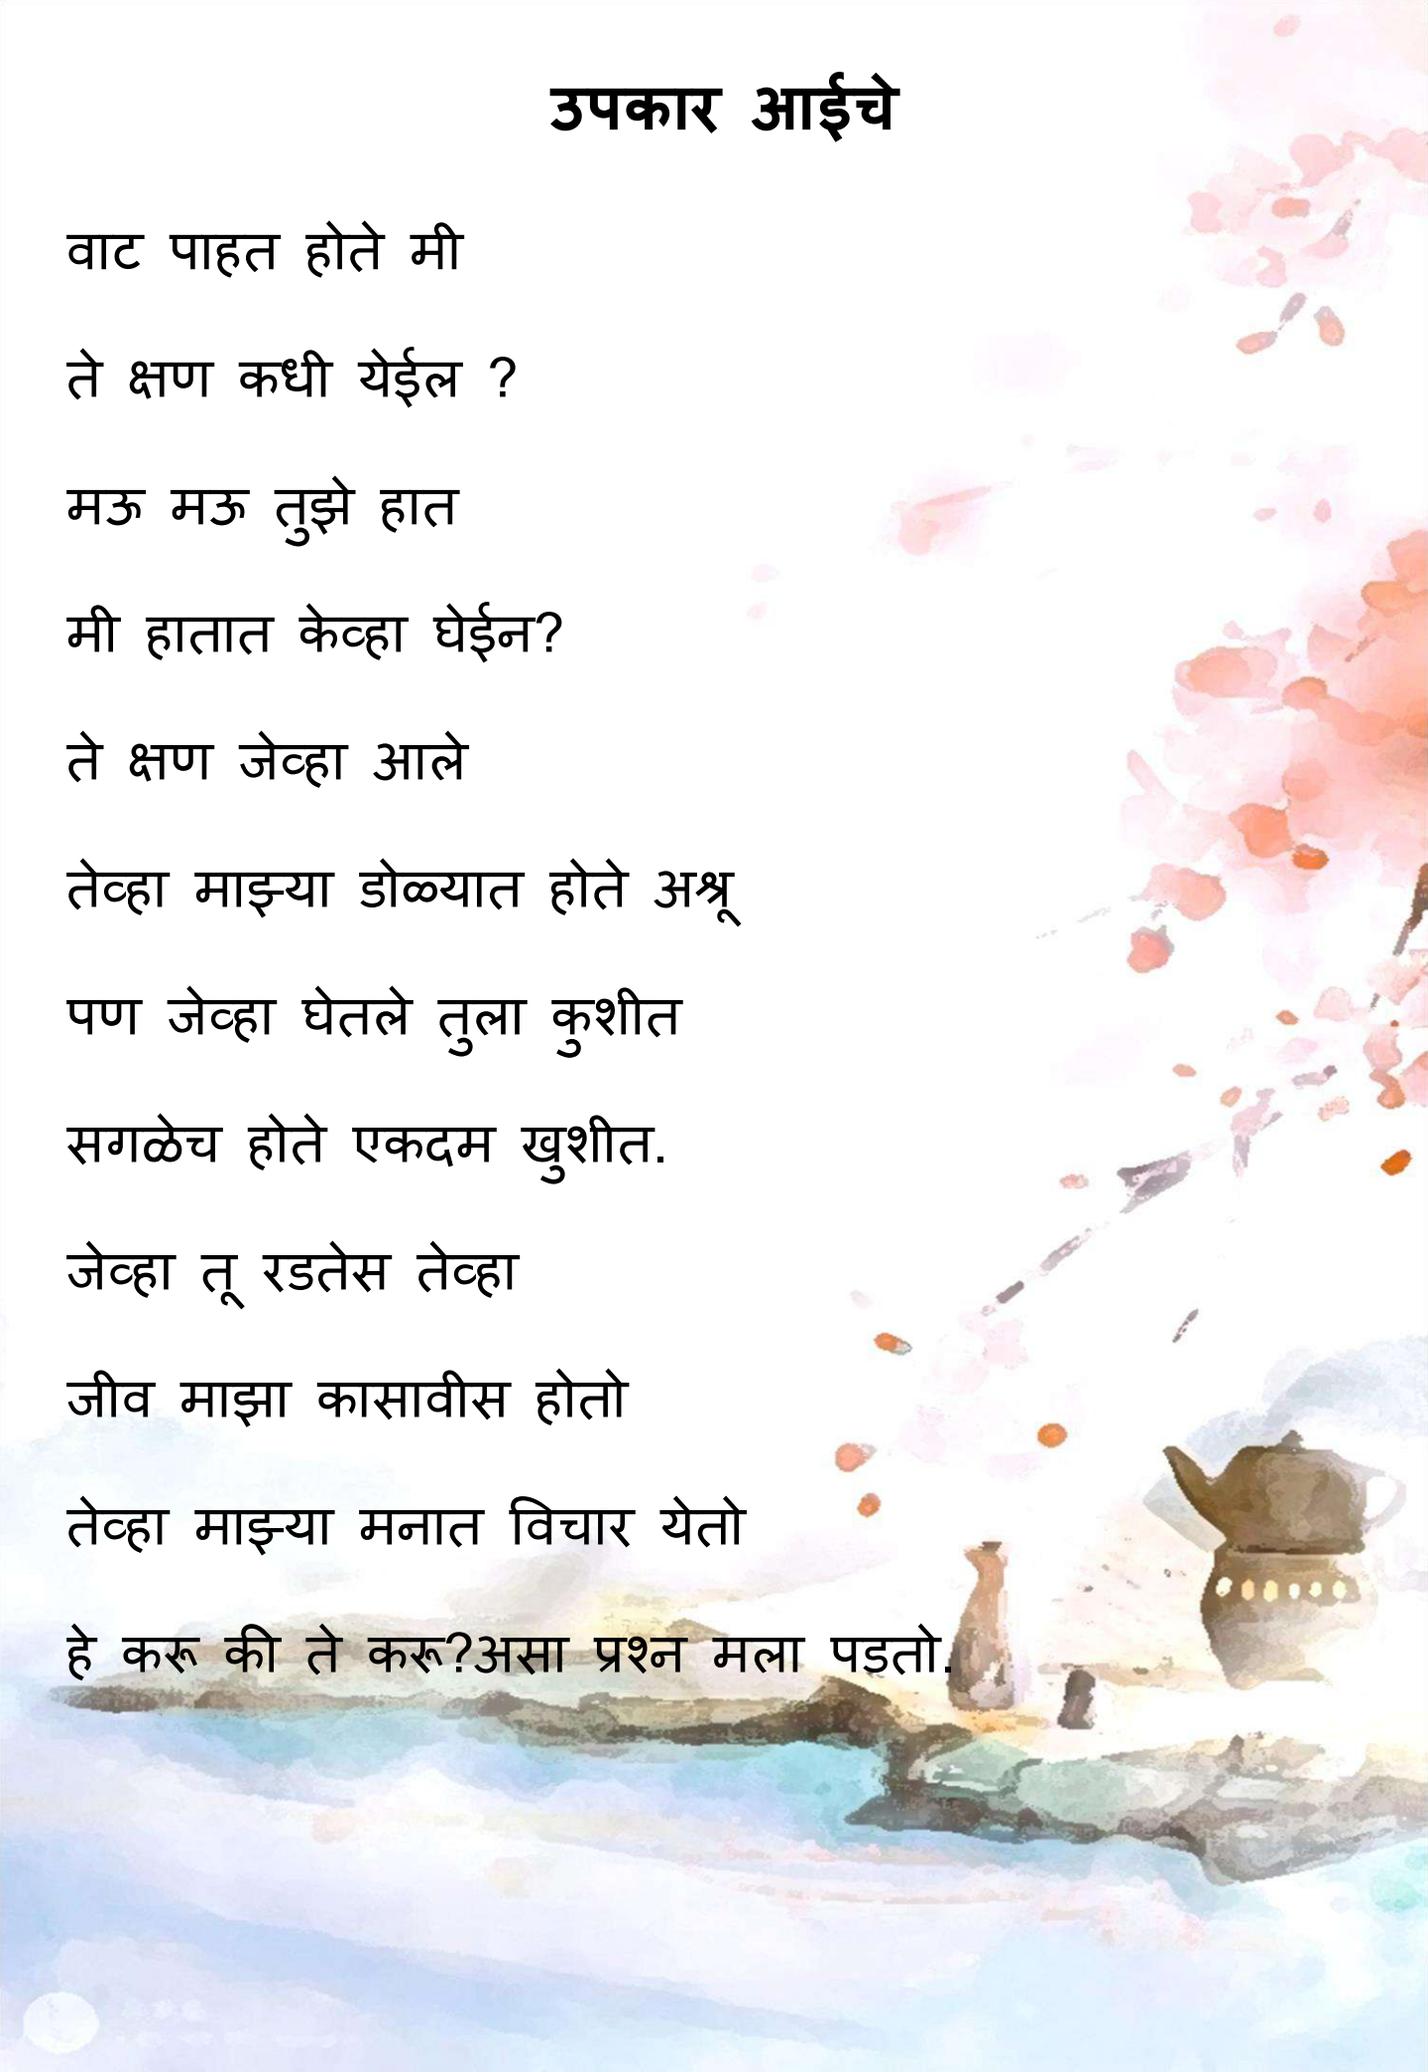

सगळेच होते एकदम खुशीत.

जेव्हा तू रडतेस तेव्हा

जीव माझा कासावीस होतो

तेव्हा माझ्या मनात विचार येतो

हे करू की ते करू?असा प्रश्न मला पडतो.

पण काही करून गप्प तुला करायचे

हेच मला ठाऊक होते

तू मोठी केव्हा होशील?

हेच स्वप्न पाहत होते.

In The Words of Educators: The Teachers' Corner

A Wake-Up Call

“No, studies can wait! I want to play,” Raj said, glued to his mobile. “And I’m not going to Uncle’s village—there’s no Wi-Fi!” Soon, he drifted into sleep.

In his dream, he was at a large railway station. A man named Mr. Present was arguing with a staff member about a delayed train. An elderly man, Mr. Past, calmly stepped in and invited him to the waiting room.

Mr. Past offered homemade parathas and buttermilk, along with handwritten notes from his family—loving reminders to eat on time and stay safe. He spoke about his joint family of 20, living simply and joyfully, celebrating festivals together, fishing by the lake, and sharing everything—even four bicycles.

Mr. Present, a well-paid corporate employee, admitted his life was the opposite: a luxurious home, two cars, six servants—but constant pressure. His days were filled with deadlines, targets, and the burden of appearances. He missed the warmth of real conversations, the simplicity of shared laughter, and the joy of small, ordinary moments.

Suddenly, they heard a commotion. A teenage boy in a high-rise was panicking about a delayed train. He called a doctor and was advised to meditate. As he sat down to pray, Mr. Present stared at him in silence and whispered, “He reminds me of my own youth...”

Raj jolted awake. “Mummy! I’m ready to go to Uncle’s village—and I promise to be a good boy!” His mother smiled. When he asked about Dad, she replied softly, “He’s out of town.”

Raj looked thoughtful. Was it just a dream—or something more?

The Mirror

Every morning, Meera looked into the mirror—and looked away. Her eyes seemed too dull, her hair too messy, her smile... unsure.

At school, she wasn't the smartest. Not the prettiest. Not the one who raised her hand with the right answer. She blended into the background like the quiet hum of a fan—always there, never noticed.

Whenever marks were announced, she'd feel smaller. When her friends posed for pictures, she'd stand at the edge. She laughed when others did, but inside, something felt broken.

Then one day, the school counsellor gave a task:

“Write a diary entry—not about what you see in yourself, but what others might see when they look at you.”

Meera stared at her blank page that night. She tried. She really tried.

But the only sentence she could write was:

"I don't know what anyone sees in me."

She didn't submit it.

On Monday, when the counsellor returned the entries, Meera was surprised to see her name on the list.

“Ma'am, I didn't submit anything,” she said.

The counsellor smiled gently and handed her a paper.

It had Meera's name at the top, but the handwriting was different.

The words were not hers.

“Submitted by Ananya (her best friend).”

The rest of the page made Meera’s eyes sting.

“When I see Meera, I see someone the world depends on. I see the girl who cheers quietly when others succeed. I see someone who listens, not just because she’s a good friend—but because she understands that everyone carries a silent weight. I see strength, not in loud words, but in the quiet actions that no one sees. Meera doesn’t know it—but she’s the kind of person who makes the world better without even trying.”

Meera read it again and again. Something shifted.

That night, when she looked into the mirror, her eyes were still the same.

But for the first time... she saw herself differently.

The mirror doesn’t always show you everything. Sometimes, you need someone else’s words to see your true reflection. And sometimes, you need to be that mirror for someone else. Be kind. Be real. And let who you are matter more than what you’ve done.

If this story made you pause... maybe it’s time to look within, too.

Try what Meera’s class once did—write a note about how you think others see you.

— Ms. Rubeena Khan

Too Close, Yet too Far

As a child I thought.

How beautiful the world would be,

If I could see and speak to my loved ones every day.

God heard my call and wish came true,

Blessed to have Facebook, WhatsApp and Botim.

I enjoyed speaking to my granny

And my loved ones every day.

‘Would share my routine

And every bit with them day to day.

Now I spend time speaking to them

And harping on every emotion.

Then one vacation I went to my granny’s place,

With whom I now speak every day.

What I thought would be exciting,

But strangely I had nothing much to share.

And bored with no topics left,

I went back to WhatsApp, Facebook and Botim,

To connect with people in the virtual world,

Because the real world seems distant,

And virtual world is what I care.

An Acrostic Poem

Rising with knowledge, shaping each mind, that's R.

Guiding with wisdom, values combined, that's G.

Hope and hard work in all that we do, that's H.

Striving for excellence, loyal and true, that's S.

At RGHS, Success is our goal, we never stand still.

Courage and kindness, strength of our will,

Helping each other, we learn and we grow.

Opportunities bloom like rivers that flow.

Overcoming challenges, bold and bright,

Lighting the future with passion and light.

Pursuing our goals with dedication,

Thus, being a proud citizen for our nation.

A Heartfelt Thank You

Imagine that it's a project day at school and you have forgotten to get the basic material - 2 plain project papers! Then your friend steps in and offers to give it to you. How thankful you would be to her! Now imagine how many needs of ours is fulfilled by God and how little do we feel thankful to Him.

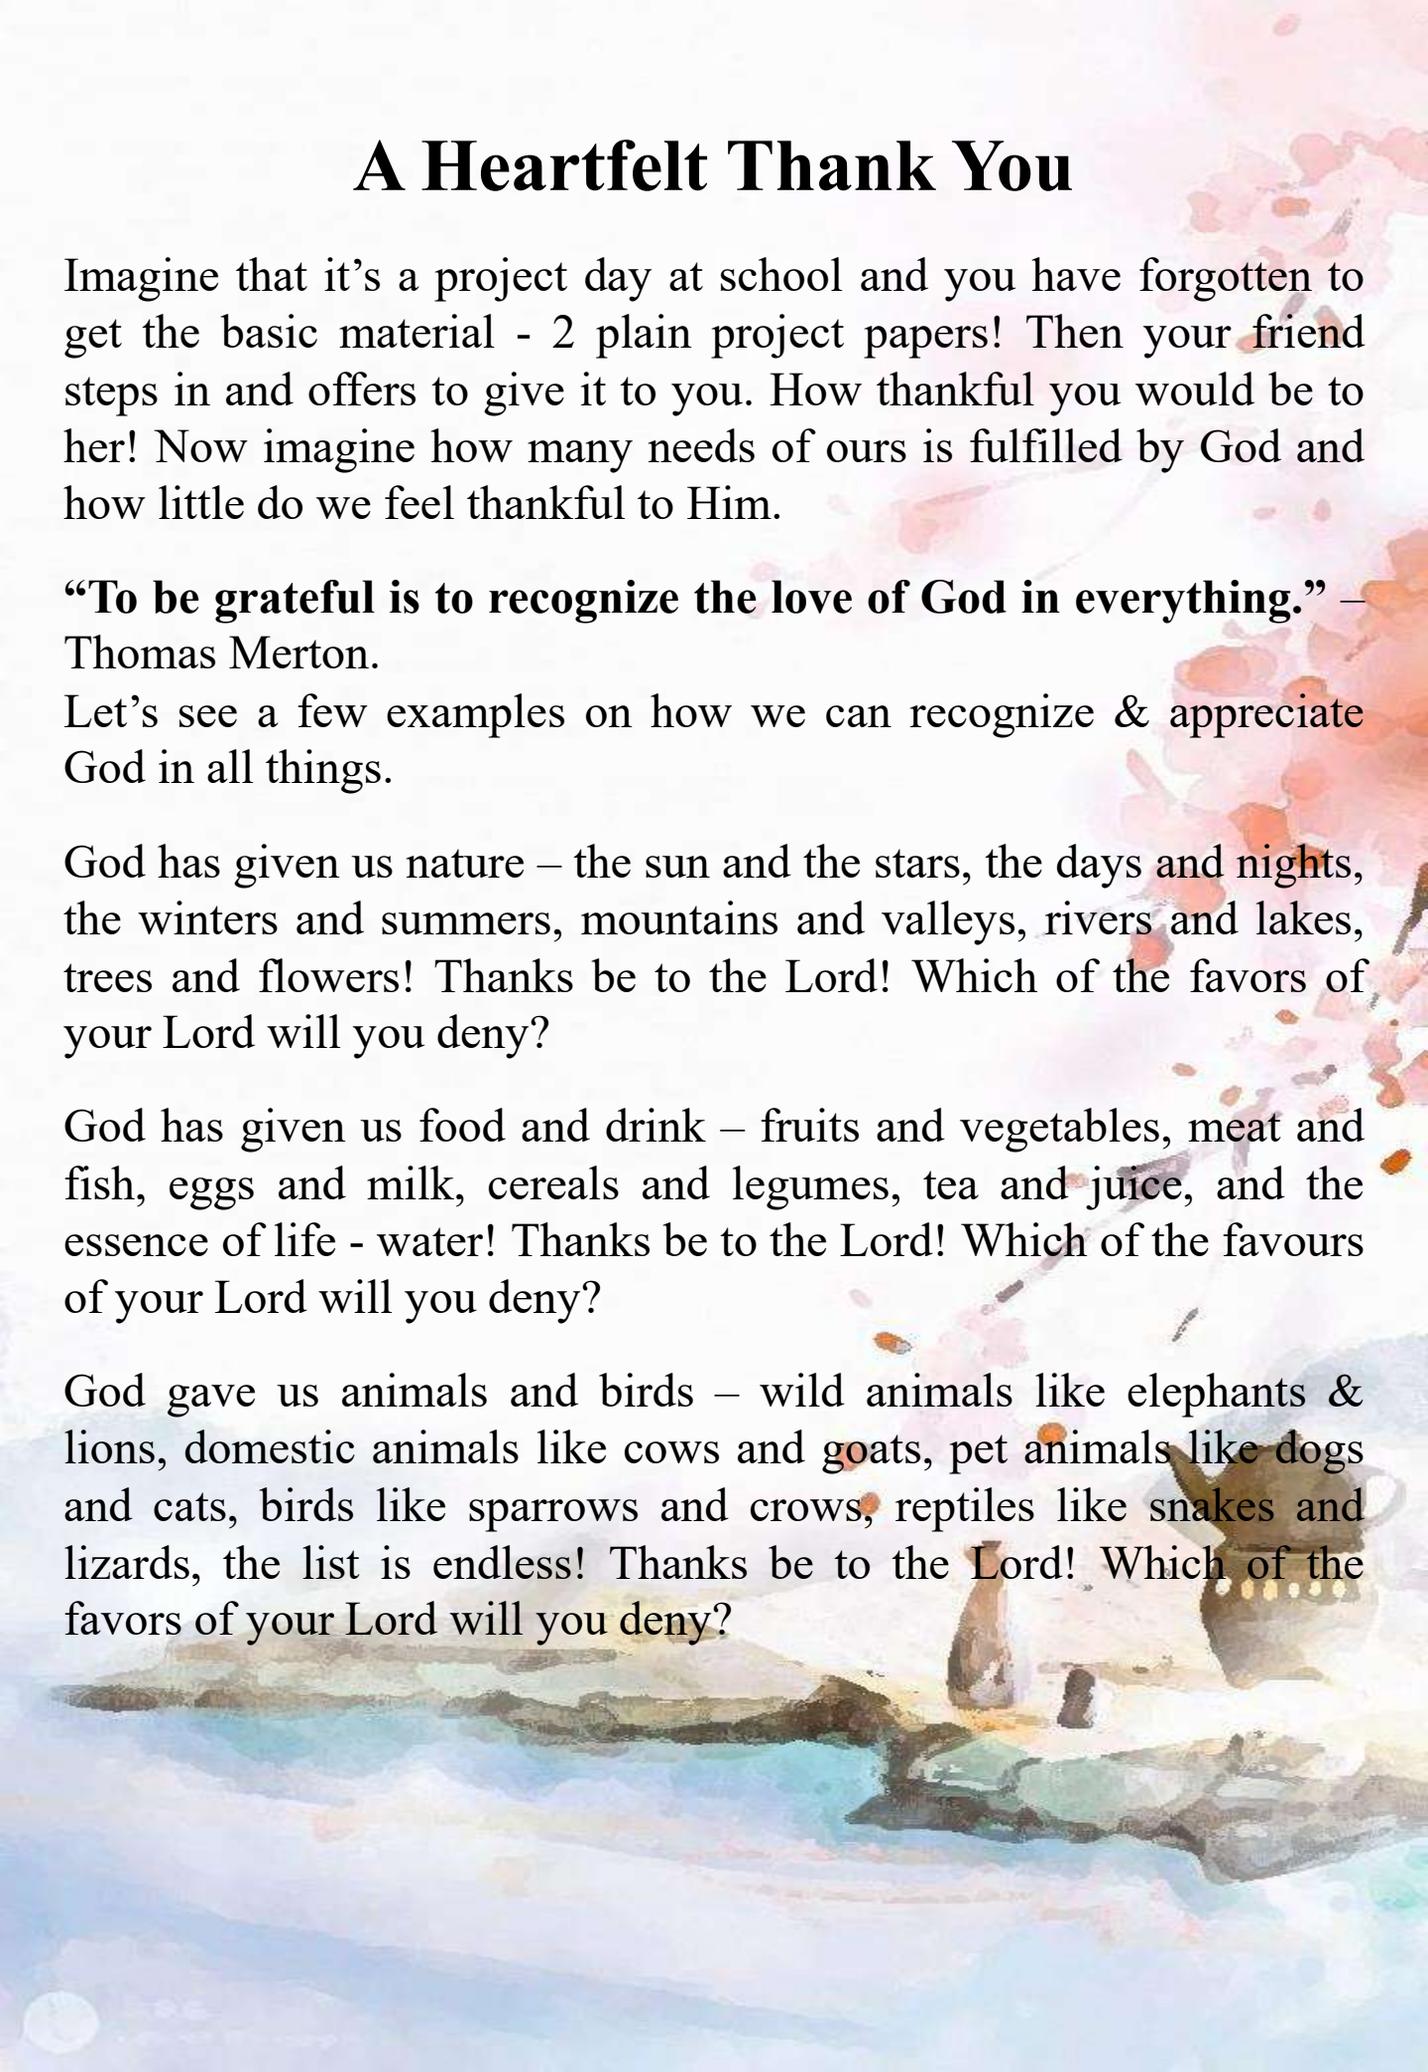

“To be grateful is to recognize the love of God in everything.” – Thomas Merton.

Let's see a few examples on how we can recognize & appreciate God in all things.

God has given us nature – the sun and the stars, the days and nights, the winters and summers, mountains and valleys, rivers and lakes, trees and flowers! Thanks be to the Lord! Which of the favors of your Lord will you deny?

God has given us food and drink – fruits and vegetables, meat and fish, eggs and milk, cereals and legumes, tea and juice, and the essence of life - water! Thanks be to the Lord! Which of the favours of your Lord will you deny?

God gave us animals and birds – wild animals like elephants & lions, domestic animals like cows and goats, pet animals like dogs and cats, birds like sparrows and crows, reptiles like snakes and lizards, the list is endless! Thanks be to the Lord! Which of the favors of your Lord will you deny?

God gave us our body parts – eyes to see, ears to hear, hands to hold, legs to walk, heart to feel, brain to think, kidneys to filter blood, lungs to breathe, and again the list is endless! Thanks be to the Lord! Which of the favors of your Lord will you deny?

God gave us appliances and vehicles – but wait, what are you thinking? Man made all of it – not God! Yes, but who gave the intelligence to man? So indirectly its God who made them! The mobile, fridge, computer, microwave, headphones, air conditioner, washing machine, scooter, bus, train, airplane, ship! Thanks be to the Lord! Which of the favors of your Lord will you deny?

God gave us our relationships – loving mother, protective father, tender siblings, caring relatives, special friends, gentle teachers and God Himself! Thanks be to the Lord! Which of the favors of your Lord will you deny?

In conclusion, gratitude to God is a way of life. By being grateful, we not only honor God but also find true happiness and fulfillment in life.

Thank You God for Every Blessing – Big or Small, You've Given It All!

— Ms. Sameera Shaikh

जगता आलं पाहिजे

रडता केव्हाही येतं,
पण रडू लपवता आलं पाहिजे.
सुख भोगता केव्हाही येतं,
पण दुःख पचवता आलं पाहिजे.

रंग सावळा म्हणून काय झालं ?
कर्तृत्व उजळवता आलं पाहिजे.
रंग गोरा असला म्हणून काय झालं ?
मनावरील काजळी काढता आली पाहिजे.

पाप काय कुठे ही होत असत,
पण पुण्य करता आलं पाहिजे.
ताठ काय कोणीही राहतं,
पण जरा झुकून वागता आलं पाहिजे.

यशाने माणूस उंच जातो,
पाय जमिनीवर ठेवता आले पाहिजे.
मिळालेल्या यशात समाधान मानून,
आनंदी जीवन जगता आलं पाहिजे.

ठेच काय लागतेच जीवनात,
सहन करता आलं पाहिजे.
मलमपट्टी करून तिला,
पुन्हा चालता आलं पाहिजे.

वेड्याचे सोंग सोडून,

शहाण्यासारखं वागता आलं पाहिजे.

कशालाही बळी न पडता,

आनंदी जीवन जगता आलं पाहिजे.

- सारिका म्हस्के

जीवन

जीवन हे सुख - दुःखाचा खेळ
जुळवून आणला पाहिजे
चांगल्या - वाईट गोष्टींचा मेळ

जीवन हे भरभरून जगा
स्वतः बरोबरच इतरांचाही
विचार करायला शिका

जीवनाचा प्रवास करा आनंदाने
आली कितीही दुःख, संकटे
त्यांचा सामना करा हसतमुखाने

जीवन केव्हा संपेल
कोणालाच माहित नाही
मनासारखं जगून घ्यावं
कारण हा जन्म पुन्हा मिळत नाही

यशासाठी प्रेरणादायी विचार

(Motivational Quotes for Success)

आयुष्यात यशस्वी होणे म्हणजे केवळ एक लक्ष्य गाठणे नव्हे, तर एक शक्तिशाली प्रवास करणे आहे. या प्रवासात अनेक चढ-उतार, अडचणी असतात. अनेक वेळा आपण निराश होतो, पण यातूनच आपल्याला नवी प्रेरणा आणि उर्जा मिळते.

यशासाठी प्रेरणादायी विचार

1. यश प्राप्त करण्यासाठी खूप परिश्रम आणि संयमाची आवश्यकता असते.
2. परिस्थिती कितीही वाईट असली तरी स्वप्न मोठी ठेवा कारण संधी कधीही मिळू शकते.
3. प्रत्येक दिवस हा नवीन संधी घेऊन येतो फक्त ती ओळखायची कला आत्मसात करा.
4. स्वतःवर विश्वास ठेवा कारण तोच विश्वास तुमच्या यशाची खरी किल्ली आहे.

5. अडचणींवर मात करून आपण यशाच्या शिखरावर पोहचू शकतो.
 6. यशस्वी व्हायचं असेल तर स्वतःला सतत विकसित करत रहा.
 7. सकारात्मक विचारांनी आपल्या जीवनात नवीन उर्जा निर्माण करा.
 8. आयुष्यात जिंकायचे असेल तर स्वतःवर प्रेम करायला शिका.
- हे प्रेरणादायी विचार तुमचं जीवन उजळवतील आणि तुमच्या स्वप्नांना पूर्ण करण्यासाठी नवी उमेद देतील.

चाफ्याची फुले

चाफ्याची फुले, मनात कित्येक आठवणी उभ्या करतात
लहानपणीचे ते क्षण डोळयासमोर उभे राहतात .

असच चाफ्याचे झाड होतं माझ्या आजीच्या घरी
सुगंध त्याचा दरवळतो आजही मनी .

सुंदर नाजूक फुले वेचण्याची मजाच न्यारी
फुलात फुल गुंफलेले गजरा दिसतो भारी .

गजरा माळून अंगणात आम्ही नाचायचो साऱ्या जणी

खरंच

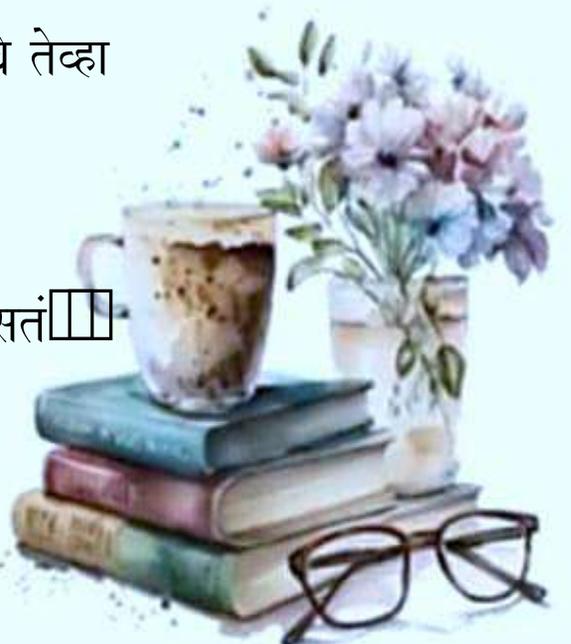

या चाफ्याची फुलासारखे, आयुष्य होते खूप सोपे आधी

छोटया छोटया गोष्टीत पण सुख मानायचे तेव्हा

आता मात्र जगण्यासाठी रोज लढावं लागतं

आता तेच चाफ्याचे फुल माझ्यावर हसतं
